PARK CITY, UTAH

ABOUT THE AREA

Once a thriving mining town, Park City is now home to three year-round mountain resorts: Deer Valley, Park City Mountains Resort, and Canyons Resort. It is located 32 miles southeast of Salt Lake City and known for its wide variety of outdoor activities and festivals. In 2008, Park City was named one of the prettiest towns in the United States by Forbes Travel. Park City has been recognized by the International Mountain Bicycling Association for excellent mountain bike trails, and it is often featured in top ski, cycling, and adventure magazines. Park City also hosts annual events like the Park City Food and Wine Classic and the Intermountain Mustang and All Ford Stampede.

GETTING THERE

Park City and Deer Valley are just under 40 miles from the Salt Lake City Airport. From the airport you can reserve a shared ride to Park City with Xpress Shuttle Utah for $35. Or you can get the whole van (up to 7 passengers) for $160 each way to save money and know that your destination is the only stop the van makes. Your employer may also provide transportation if you arrive in a group, so be sure to check the details ahead of time.

WHAT FORMER SWT PARTICIPANTS SAY...

“ Park City is the best place to be for the summer. We stayed at Montage Deer Valley, the most beautiful place I've ever seen. There are chair lifts that take you to the top of the highest crest so you can see the landscape and try out mountain bike and hiking trails. There are also plenty of other ways to have fun: horseback riding, public pools, and a recreation center for any kind of sport.

Prices are really low in Park City, and there are a lot of well-paid places to work that also offer housing and meals. The city has free public transportation and it's great for visiting other places like Zion National Park, the Grand Canyon, or other parks in Utah or Arizona... ”
